Elden Ring Features Key:

Belief in a Time Span of "The Future" The Lands Between are a mystic, modernized fusion of the multiverse and a space-time channel extending into the unknown future. Thus, the time is constantly flowing to the present—consciousness has a space and time path like a river flowing in the Lands Between.

New Play Style Advance your characters any way you like. You can equip them with any weapons, armor, and magic you like, with a wide freedom of customization. Moreover, the weapon slots for strong attacks and battle-hardened armor can be used for other weapons.

Return of the Sword Arts The sword arts—those of the great knightly guilds wielded by legendary Elden Lords; they have been forgotten for centuries. Until now you can enjoy an RPG in which they come back!

New Skin-Crafting System Select and retrace each skin in the shared world to create your very own expressive, individualized character.

What's new:

Since the end of our campaign, we are VERY busy preparing additional challenge modes and XP bonus levels for the game. Therefore we recommend buying a BTB during the summer. What is "BTB"??? Lets see... Bittersweet Beloved ( yes: There are Bittersweet Gems from BitterSweet Beloved in the game ) Happy mining Xoxoxo Hello: We have discovered that the Link (developer) has recently suspended upgrades to the new version of the game ( 1.2 ). He will make an announcement when everything is back in order. He thanks you for your continued support! Hello again fellow XOXOS, I apologize for the delays and continue to work on the bug fixing part of the game. A temporary version is live. Steam users can download it from the store page. Start a game and create a new world. Hope you enjoy it... Best regards, Tom

Q: Windows 7 + print out ANSI graphics using Windows API I want to implement a print screen into C#. Now I have found some code which creates a graphic in memory using Windows API as kernel32.Gdi32.CreateStockObject(), this method is available after Windows Vista but there is print function in Windows 7, does anyone know how to print out a screen to a printer and how can I include it into my code? Thanks in advance. A: Updated based on question edit
