* You are the pilot of a fighter spacecraft, aiming to keep your ship as safe as possible while you battle your opponent in one of the 7 arenas * You need to dodge rockets, asteroids, and other objects, along with the boosters that are falling from the rocket that you are in * You don't have access to your boosters * Choose two fighters to play offline against the AI * Your ship can fire one of the three weapons: Melee, APC, or Land Attack * APC fires a missile attack * Melee weapon fires a laser beam * Landing Attack fires a land attack that will destroy an object in the arena * Land Attack can fire multiple times to destroy multiple objects * You have access to one land attack that you can use to destroy the asteroids and rockets * During the match, you can be hit by other objects and get damaged * In Instant Action, you can immediately make repairs * You lose the match when you get hit by the boosters falling from your own rocket * Your fighter's speed varies * You can use land attacks to destroy objects, or you can dodge/inflict damage to other objects * When you destroy all the objects in the arena, you win! Game "Draid" Gameplay: * You are the commander of a larger battle ship, called the Droneship * Droneships are battle groups with several smaller ships that are sent to a mission and provide backup support for their larger ship * Droneships are command-controlled and they follow your orders * You choose one fighter pilot to follow you, and work with you in the mission * You need to dodge rockets, asteroids, and other objects, along with the boosters that are falling from the rocket that you are in * You can release drones * Drones will follow your orders and they will fire on any objects * Drones are more vulnerable to damage and when their health is low, they will fall to the ground * You can repair drones * You can hold drones and control them with the 'Hurt/Freeze Drone' action * You lose when all the drones in the Droneship are destroyed "Draid" Game "Drones" Multiplayer: * Play as a fighter pilot against the AI, or join a game for real players * You get points based on the destruction you cause, and also based on your damage inflicted * You can use land attack to destroy objects, or you can dodge/
