The free multiplayer video games platform, Creative Academy, and premium gaming services with continuous content, including Roblox.com, Roblox Developer, the Roblox Studio, Roblox Mobile and Roblox Arena. Roblox is known for its unique cyberspace environment, player creativity and game engine technology. The platform offers a persistent virtual world that is shared across multiple devices and platforms for free. As of August 2020, it has 164 million monthly active users including 5.4 million of children under 16. Roblox Overview: As a free-to-play game-design platform, Roblox allows players to create their own games, stories, and experiences. Roblox features thousands of games created by users in the Roblox Studio. These games can be in any genre, designed to work with Roblox's free-to-use software platform, and they include role-playing games, platformers, escape games, racing games, strategy games, simulations, action games, and more. Players can also create their own games with the aid of Roblox Studio, which is the official game-creation tool of Roblox. As of August 2020, the Roblox platform includes more than 160 million monthly active users, including 4.2 million children under 16. Roblox uses an internal system of rewards for different user activities that it calls "pings" to encourage player participation. Using a method called creative incentive programs, Roblox offers the most popular game developers and Roblox Studio developers, including big-name third-party developers like Yuke's, MumboJumbo, 1C, and SEGA, more money for their creative output. Roblox also allows users to purchase virtual currency, called Robux, which is used to pay for in-game items, and through the Robux store, players can purchase clothing, accessories, digital items, and other virtual items. Robux can also be earned by playing games and completing tasks. Robux prices range from US$0.99 to US$99.99. As of August 2020, the Roblox website has more than 1000 virtual items that can be purchased with Robux. Roblox Overview: Roblox has a membership fee of US$4.99 per month or US$29.99 per year, with options to purchase other special bundles. Users who create games on the Roblox platform can keep 90% of the Microsoft Office is a multi-platform productivity suite, that provides word processing, spreadsheets, presentations, and drawings. Below are some handy tips on how to use MS Word to your advantage. Use this if you're just a simple user.

1. Microsoft Word toolbars While the default toolbar is fine, you can customize the one as you wish. In the toolbars, you'll find everything from file and edit options to a table of contents, a color scheme, and many other options. You can delete the existing toolbars, customize them or add any of your own. To do so, simply right-click on the bar of your choice and select "Customize". Then delete the existing, or add your own.
2. Microsoft Word spell check It's almost an unspoken rule that if you're a writer, you should put in the spelling mistakes before submitting your work. To do so, simply click on the red word, or misspelled word in your document, and choose "Check Spelling". Microsoft Word will check the spelling for you.
3. Microsoft Word auto save If you've ever written a really long document, you'll know that the easiest way to work is to just let the old document be. However, you don't have the privilege. To avoid losing the progress, Microsoft has added an auto save feature into Word. This should ensure that your work is backed up safely and quickly. The feature is very simple to turn on. Open the "File" option, find "Options" and click on "Save" in the "Before Printing" section. Check the box of "Recovery before saving a changed version". Now, whenever you finish editing and save, it will ask you whether you want to write the new version of the document. If you click "No", it will simply write the current version.
4. Microsoft Word hyperlinks To insert a hyperlink in your document, simply click on the highlighted text or hyperlink and click on "Insert Hyperlink". This will open a small window that will enable you to click on "Go To" and insert a URL of your choice. You can choose from the Web, newsgroup or FTP site. To highlight text to insert a hyperlink, simply click on the text you wish to highlight, press Shift+F9, and the text will be linked automatically. 5. Microsoft Word insert pictures Another unspoken rule of writers is to insert
