The epic of Lam-ang is a story about the life of a Ilocano and the glory of his ancestors, their honor and heroic deeds, their greatness as a people and their fidelity to their husbands and their love for and sacrifice for their children. It tells in 44 episodes the story of Bukaneg, an Ilocano who was named after the Spanish word for elder brother. He was greatly loved and a symbol of loyalty and filial piety. It is also known as Biag ni Lamang Pedro Bukaneg. Biag ni Lam-ang is said to be a reaction against the Spanish colonization of the Philippines by pre-colonial Filipino poet-writers who probably saw no evil in the colonial system as long as it is something good for the people. In this regard, the story of Biag ni Lamang Pedro Bukaneg is a must read in the Philippines because it tells the story of the Filipino people to the Spanish colonial system. The story of Biag ni Lamang Pedro Bukaneg had a very immense influence on the minds of the Ilocano people. The Ilocanos are seen as mischievous by their more powerful and more stubborn neighbors, the Visayans, because of their peculiar dialect and behavior, an image that is depicted in the story. Likewise, the Ilokanos c6a93da74d
